Provincial-level predictors of new bird distribution records

a-f, partial residual plots showing the independent effect of each predictor after controlling for the others. g, relative importance from hierarchical partitioning. h, slope estimates with 95% confidence intervals from the negative-binomial model; colours in h match g.

